

Standards, Procedures & Rights of Faculty Members

Excerpts Relevant for Promotion to Full Professor taken from the MSP Collective Bargaining Agreement and the Academic Personnel Policy "Redbook"

STANDARDS

Section 4.1 Redbook & Article 12.1 MSP Contract)

High professional standards must be the basis for all personnel decisions. Personnel recommendations and decisions shall be made only after a review of all the qualifications and all the contributions of the individual in the areas of teaching; of research, creative or professional activity; and of service. Where applicable (see Articles 26.2.8 and 33.3) all three areas must be considered but the relative weight to be given each may be determined in the light of the duties of the faculty member.

With regard to promotion to full, relative weight will be given to each area may also be determined in light of the duties of the faculty member when considering if the following criteria have been met:

- a) The faculty member has achieved substantial recognition on and off campus from scholars or professionals in the faculty member's field and
- b) the candidate has shown significant potential for continued professional achievement.

Final decisions are made only after giving serious consideration to all the materials in the basic file as well as to the professional judgments of the Departmental Personnel Committee, which are and ought to be given great weight.

Section 4.6 (Redbook)

Recommendations for promotion shall be based on qualifications and contributions in the areas of teaching; of research, creative, or professional activity; and of service; and on the following considerations:

- c) For promotion to Professor, the faculty member must have a record of achievement sufficient to have gained substantial recognition on and off campus from scholars or professionals in his or her field; and must show significant potential for continuing professional achievement.

PROCEDURES

Article 12.4 (MSP Contract)

In reviews for major personnel actions for faculty--reappointments through the tenure decision year, promotion to the ranks of associate professor and professor and the award of tenure--the procedures listed below shall be followed:

- (a) Notice of a personnel review for reappointment or tenure shall be sent to the faculty member no later than the end of the third calendar week of the semester before the review is to be initiated.
- (b) As provided in Articles 24.4 and 24.5, a basic file shall be created for each major personnel action. This file shall be supplemented and reviewed at the departmental level and supplemented and reviewed at each successive level of recommendation or decision. The file shall contain the materials listed in Article 12.5.

- (c) No later than May 1st of the semester before the review is to begin, the faculty member shall submit to the Department/Program Chair/Head any and all materials for inclusion in the basic file that the faculty member believes will be essential for external referees to review for adequate consideration of the case. No later than the first week of the semester in which the review is to begin, the faculty member shall submit to the Department/Program Chair/Head any remaining materials for inclusion in the basic file that they believe will be essential for adequate consideration of the case. Failure to submit the basic tenure file by September 15th of the tenure review year without good cause shall, in cases involving review for tenure, result in issuance of a notice of non-reappointment and no review will be conducted.
- (d) For appointment at or promotion to the rank of associate professor and professor and for all tenure recommendations, the Chair/Head shall solicit outside letters of reference drawn from a list of scholars and/or professionals. If appropriate, the Chair/Head may also solicit internal (on-campus) letters from faculty colleagues. The list of both external and internal letter writers shall include those suggested by the faculty member but the list is not limited to those the faculty member suggests. The candidate has the right to waive access to internal and/or external letters. The confidentiality of such letters shall be governed by the University's Fair Information Practices Regulations, Trustee document T77-059 (see Appendix B). Prior to any solicitation of letters, the candidate shall be provided with a copy of the solicitation letter and the list(s) of proposed referees and shall be given an opportunity to comment on the appropriateness of both. External referees shall be provided with the candidate's CV, personal statement(s), and any other materials that the candidate wishes to include.
- (e) At any time subsequent to the recommendation of the Department Personnel Committee, the materials in the basic file, with the exception of letters of recommendation to which the faculty member has voluntarily waived access, shall be accessible to the faculty member upon request.

What Happens at the Departmental Level -- Section 6.4 (Redbook)

At the departmental level, the faculty, ... initiates the personnel action by a recommendation of the departmental personnel committee based on the evidence set forth in the basic file. The Department Chairperson/Head reviews the department personnel committee recommendation and a) may endorse it; or b) after consultation, may formulate a contrary recommendation.
