Chancellor Subbaswamy, President Meehan, Senator Jo Comerford, and other higher education and legislative leaders will join us to hear from faculty, staff, and students. Union members from across the state will discuss reopening plans and campus budgets for the coming year.

Higher education staff, faculty and students are struggling with the effects of years of disinvestment in public higher education. Racial and economic inequities are exacerbated by the pandemic and economic crises. Layoffs, furloughs, and program closures will further harm Massachusetts public colleges and universities – it's time to re-invest.

Join us as we present testimony to legislators and invited leaders in public Higher Education, including Commissioner of Higher Education Carlos Santiago and UMass President Marty Meehan. Please RSVP: www.massteacher.org/COVIDonCampus

See you Monday, from 5:00 – 6:00 pm.

Before the forum, please sign this petition to President Meehan:

And if you have time, check out this ad for higher ed <http://massachusettsagrees.org> – this is just the beginning of a statewide social media and TV ad campaign. Our message to President Marty Meehan, Commissioner Carlos Santiago, and the Board of Trustees is this: as our employers and trustees it is your first and most important job to secure the necessary funds to strengthen UMass during this crisis and beyond.
